

I am writing in support of the New Jersey do not call list. I feel that it has been a very successful program which has cut commercial calls to my home and should not be eliminated.